

Peterson isn't a politician, just a citizen with a vision

March 24, 2010

Experience, commitment, perseverance; Peterson's proven leadership. It's all in Anna's brochure and I couldn't agree more.

Anna is for small business. She ran one, met payroll and paid taxes. She's been part of the engine that runs this state (or any state for that matter).

Anna has worked in the trenches for small neighborhoods as co-founder of No Meth — Not in My Neighborhood and chair of the Governor's Meth Task Force. She has been tireless in her support of the arts with leadership roles with the Salem Public Library, Oregon Symphony, Historic Elsinore Theatre and many more.

But, this is important: She isn't a politician but is simply a citizen who wants to continue Janet Taylor's vision for progress in our community.

She will make a great mayor.
