

Peterson proves leadership skills

March 28, 2010

In the upcoming mayor's race, the voters of Salem have the opportunity to elect someone who has proven leadership abilities.

Someone who can tackle tough problems head on and has no agenda but to serve the community.

That someone is Anna Peterson.

The biggest scourge facing our community during the past decade was rampant drug abuse. Every month new meth labs were discovered and children of meth-making parents often were the victims.

Anna Peterson took decisive action and co-founded No Meth — Not in My Neighborhood, which brought an entire community together to fight this battle. A battle many thought unwinnable until they saw the skill, character and enthusiasm of Anna. She proved her leadership to a proud community.

Join me in voting for Anna Peterson for mayor of Salem.
